

Expert Personal Injury Advice Now Available at the Dacorum Citizens Advice Bureau

Dacorum Citizens Advice Bureau has teamed up with Beds, Herts and Bucks leading law firm Pictons Solicitors LLP to offer local clients free 30-minute legal advice sessions on personal injury cases.

Victoria MacGregor, Chief Executive of the Dacorum District Citizens Advice Bureau said: "We are very pleased to welcome on board the Pictons Hemel Hempstead office to come into the Bureau and provide initial free advice on potential personal injury claims. Pictons' expertise in this area is well known and we want people in Dacorum to be able to benefit from these free sessions."

Melanie Neale, Personal Injury expert from Pictons Solicitors said: "I am a big fan of the Citizens Advice Bureau, it provides an excellent service to the community. I think these free initial sessions would be really helpful for people thinking about taking forward a claim. If anyone has been unfortunate enough to suffer an accidental injury or caught a disease through no fault of their own, we at Pictons can help or advise on all aspects of any personal injury claim.

"Contacting lawyers may seem daunting but these appointments at the Bureau are totally informal and will provide people with a friendly and supportive personal service that is free of jargon so that the meeting will be informative and easy to understand."

Pictons Solicitors are offering the free 30 minute appointments fortnightly on Wednesdays at the Dacorum Citizens Advice Bureau in Hillfield Road, Hemel Hempstead. For contact details see the website www.dacorumcab.org.uk
