

Pictons Expands Its Sponsorship of Hemel Hempstead Town Cricket Club With New Team Kit

Leading regional law firm Pictons, which has offices in Hemel Hempstead, Tring, Luton and Milton Keynes, has renewed its sponsorship of the popular local cricket club, the Hemel Hempstead Town Cricket Club, for the second year, while increasing its commitment to the Club by also sponsoring the Club's sparkling new cricket whites.

Sukh Saini, Managing Partner of Pictons says "We are sponsoring the Hemel Hempstead Town Cricket Club for the second year running because the Club is an integral and iconic part of the town's community landscape.

"This year I was keen to further our commitment to the Club and took the opportunity to finance the Club's bright white kit. We have had our own office cricket matches with other organisations at their centrally placed and immaculately kept cricket ground and I've watched many a Club game there. It's a great location for my favourite sport and this summer season is likely to be one of their best. We will be very proud to see our name emblazoned on the winning side!"

Hemel Hempstead Town Cricket Club is a family orientated cricket and social club catering for all ages and abilities. Established in 1850, it boasts over 150 years of sporting heritage with strong ties to the local community.

The Club runs four Saturday sides playing in the Saracens Hertfordshire Cricket League, two Sunday sides and a Women's team playing in the North London Women's Cricket League, as well as a thriving junior section for boys and girls.

James Birnie the Club's Chairman, says "Hemel Hempstead Cricket Club is delighted that Pictons Solicitors have renewed their commitment as a major sponsor of the Club and we are really grateful that they've gone even further this year and also sponsored our match day kit. We are always interested in meeting new players, social members and businesses to invite them to get involved with the cricket club. Whatever your age, gender or ability, if you love cricket Hemel Hempstead Town Cricket Club will support your passion."
