

Pictons Partner Siobhan Rooney Visits Milton Keynes Bumps and Babies Group for a Chat with Cake

Siobhan Rooney of Pictons Solicitors visited a Bumps and Babies group in Milton Keynes last Monday run by the National Childbirth Trust (NCT) to talk to young parents about safeguarding their futures from a legal perspective.

Siobhan, a Partner and Head of Family and Private Client at Pictons was there to offer support, guidance and to answer questions around Wills and Lasting Powers of Attorney

Siobhan said "It was really lovely to be surrounded by other mums and lots of little babies and be able to provide them with some of the tools they might need to better prepare themselves should the worst happen. There's never a good time to talk about "what if" but it's so important to get in that frame of mind as early as possible so that your wishes as a parent or parents are put down on paper and acted upon should they need to be.

Siobhan continued "We're really grateful that the NCT let us come along and be part of their group, which was friendly and laidback. Hopefully some of the mums are now more confident in what they know they need to put in place for peace of mind. As a mum I know how important your little ones are and having something in place is invaluable to give them peace of mind and to allow young parents to actually enjoy the new experience of parenting.
